Dear Brother Lemmons:

I want to express my gratitude for the January 17 issue of the Firm Foundation. At least three of the articles were unusually outstanding: the article on marriage by Robert K. Oliver the reprint of Ashley H. Johnson, and the penetrating article by John D. White.

I also deeply appreciated the editorial. I have had fears of "white knights" who charge to and fro across the brotherhood leaving the impression that God is powerless to redeem even a remnant. I assure you of my continued interest in your editorial efforts.

I send you my best regards. I definitely want to talk with you during the ACC Lectureship.

Fratemally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Thanks for publishing J. D. Thomas's articles on the Holy Spirit. I felt it mandatory that a balanced treatment like brother Thomas's be presented to the brotherhood.
